We may alter/cancel a course/event in whole or in part if for example there are insufficient enrolments or if there is a problem with the tutor or venue or due to severe weather. In the event of cancellation we will attempt to notify you in advance and offer you an appropriate alternative or refund.

We are not responsible if we are unable to contact you using the information you provide at the time of booking.

We do not accept responsibility if you are unable to attend any courses/events booked.

Members and Membership

Membership of REC is required to use the Centre facilities and attend courses/events. Under no circumstances will you be permitted to participate in any courses/events without a valid membership.

If you book without a valid membership we may contact you and ask you to become a member, although we are not obliged to do so. Bookings made without a valid membership are liable to be cancelled and refunded, minus a 20% handling fee.

Membership commences upon payment through to the end of the academic year. Some short courses require only a temporary membership which is valid for the duration of the course only and included in the non-membership cost.

All members are expected to conduct themselves in a proper manner whilst enjoying the benefits of membership. Threatening, abusive or severely disruptive behaviour will not be tolerated and may result in membership being suspended or withdrawn.

Discrimination

REC does not discriminate on any grounds, including but not limited to, age, race, gender, religion, marital status, sexual orientation or disability. Members are expected to respect these values whilst on the premises or participating in courses/events.

Privacy and Data Protection

We are totally committed to protecting your privacy. We will only use the information that we collect about you in accordance with prevailing Data Protection legislation.

We will not sell or otherwise disclose your contact information to any third party other than for order processing, unless required to do so by law.

Data relating to your order and your personal data may be stored in electronic and or paper form. We may use this information to:

- Process your order
- Contact you in relation to your order
- Contact you to inform you of changes / cancellations

We may also use your data in anonymised form for statistical analysis.

We may contact you by email with marketing information (offers, promotions, courses, events etc) only if you elect for us to do so at the time of booking.

Cookies are used on the online booking system of the website to keep track of the contents of your shopping cart.

Payment Security

Online card transactions are processed securely by our merchant service provider Sagepay. Your card number will be encrypted when your order is placed and our merchant providers then inform us, via the encryption system, the outcome of that transaction.

Telephone, Postal and In-Person Orders - we do not store any payment card details. Once used for the purpose of processing your order all financial details are destroyed.

Acceptance and Jurisdiction

A legally binding contract is concluded when you receive a booking confirmation. You must be over 18 and legally capable of entering into this contract.

By placing an order with us you agree to and accept these terms which are subject to the laws of England and Wales. These terms do not affect your legal rights.
